

Meeting of the Maynard Cultural Council

Minutes for January 27, 2022

This meeting was conducted as a remote meeting to prevent spread of COVID-19

Meeting called to order @ 7:02 pm.

Council attendees: Sara Lundberg, Richard Pepin, Zannah Noe, Andy Moerlein, Greg Bokis, Jenna Dargie, Donald James

Guests: Lynda Thayer, Lisa Dunn

1. Minutes from January 13, 2022 MCC meeting approved
2. Donald James (DJ) was confirmed by the Maynard Select Board on January 19, 2022 and is now a voting member of the Maynard Cultural Council
3. MCC Chairperson Sara Lundberg expecting baby in April 2022 - at next meeting, council to elect a temporary chair for when Sara is not available
4. Grant Cycle 2022:
  - Town of Maynard has received 2022 great funds
  - Members of Maynard Cultural Council to reach out to their assigned grantees
5. CDI Grant:
Maynard Cultural Council to begin work on "Discover Maynard" project -
Zannah Noe, Greg Bokis & Lynda Thayer to consider forming subcommittee to work on this project
6. MPIC:
Discussion of Maynard Downtown Master Plan - Maynard Cultural Council to try to align goals from the CDI grant as well as the potential Festivals grant to those goals of the Maynard Master Plan
7. "Festivals" grant:
Discussion of various ways to use potential Festivals grant resources as well as a general discussion of possible Festivals here in town:
  - MCC possible partnership with Maynard Business Association for Spring Art Walk
  - Economic Development Committee would like to use Naylor Court (the Basin) for a festival, i.e. a Food Truck Festival, Music Festival, etc. Lisa Dunn to explore forming an ad hoc committee to work on this
  - Suggestion to ask local businesses to support and/or sponsor any downtown festivals
  - DJ in discussion with local supporters of a one-day Jazz Festival to be held in front of the Naylor Court mural
  - Maynard Cultural Council to support recipient of Festivals grant
- 8: Maynard Business Alliance meeting February 16 @ 9:00 AM - Maynard Cultural Council members urged to attend

Meeting adjourned @ 8:02 pm